

TONY MITCHELL

Tony is an independent board director, national speaker, and strategic advisor to CEO's and boards. He has served as an executive, board member, board chairman, and business advisor for closely-held, family, public, and divisional companies ranging from $2 million to $2 billion in revenue. His experience spans manufacturing, food service, broker-dealer, technology, professional services and workplace diversity industries.

tmLeadership.com

Tony is Founder and CEO of tmLeadership, LLC where he is dedicated to creating value for boards, CEO's, and their organizations by helping them Lead with Transformation.

Prior to founding tmLeadership, Tony served as President and COO of Pharma Tech Industries. During his tenure the organization successfully executed a new vision and new organizational values, brand position and strategy while concurrently transitioning ownership from the founder to the next generation.

Prior to Pharma Tech, Tony served as CFO and CIO at Morrison Management Specialists. Over his 13 year tenure, Morrison grew from $300 million to over $2 billion in revenue.

Tony has also served at two Investment Broker-Dealer firms, a technology company, and Ernst & Whinney (now EY), one of the largest public accounting and professional services firms in the world.

SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Board Chairman and Director
- Business Advisor and Strategist
- Professional Speaker
- President and Chief Operating Officer (COO)
- Chief Financial Officer (CFO)
- Chief Information Officer (CIO)

Board Engagement

Tony is Vice-Chairman of the Board of Christian Alliance for Orphans (CAFO).

He is a past advisory board member for Duke Manufacturing, designer and manufacturer of over 4,500 food service equipment products.

He is past Chairman of the Multicultural Food service and Hospitality Alliance (MFHA). During his term the organization underwent its most significant strategic change: the introduction of a new business model, a new brand strategy, and a new governance model.

He advises for CEO Netweavers Inflection Point, a CEO advisory panel.

He has also served on several board Compensation, Finance, Retirement Plan and Diversity committees.

Public Speaking

Tony is a national speaker, including keynotes, at leadership events, retreats and executive panels.

He has been invited to participate on numerous executive panels including Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce Leadership Panel, Kettering Executive Summit, and MFHA's Diverse Executives Panel.

He is also an ongoing speaker for FamilyLife's nationwide "Weekend to Remember"® marriage conferences for audiences from 300 to 1,800.

Education Accreditation Personal

Tony is a Corporate Directors Governance Fellow, graduate of Wharton's Executive Education Program, a CPA, holds a BBA in Accounting, with honors, and has earned NASD Series 27, 24, 7 & 63 licenses. Tony and his wife reside in Atlanta, Georgia and have two adult children.