

TONY MITCHELL

Tony is an independent board director, national speaker, and strategic advisor to CEO's and boards. He has served as an executive, board member, board chairman, and business advisor, for closely-held, family, public, and divisional companies ranging from $2 million to $2 billion in revenue. His experience spans manufacturing, food service, broker-dealer, technology, professional services, and workplace diversity industries.

tmLeadership.com

| linkedin.com/in/tmitchell7

After leaving corporate America, Tony founded tmLeadership, LLC where he serves organizations as an independent board director, national speaker, and strategic advisor.

Tony also serves as the COO of Christian Alliance for Orphans (CAFO).

Tony previously served as President & COO of Pharma Tech Industries. During his tenure, the organization successfully executed a new vision and established new organizational values, brand position and strategy while concurrently transitioning ownership from the founder to the next generation.

Prior to Pharma Tech, Tony served as CFO and CIO at Morrison Management Specialists. Over his 13-year tenure, Morrison grew from $300 million to over $2 billion in revenue.

Tony has also served at two Investment Broker-Dealer firms, a technology company, and EY, one of the largest public accounting and professional services firms in the world.

SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Board Chairman and Director
- Business Advisor and Strategist
- National Speaker
- President & Chief Operating Officer (COO)
- Chief Financial Officer (CFO)
- Chief Information Officer (CIO)

Board Engagement

Tony is past Chairman of the Board of Christian Alliance for Orphans (CAFO).

He is a past board member for Duke Manufacturing, a private company, and designer and manufacturer of over 4,500 food service equipment products.

He is past Chairman of the Board for the Multicultural Foodservice and Hospitality Alliance (MFHA). During his term as Board Chair, the organization underwent its most significant strategic changes: the introduction of a new business model, a new brand strategy, and a new governance model.

He has served on board Compensation, Finance, Retirement Plan and Diversity committees and served on several CEO advisory panels and roundtables.

Public Speaking

Tony is a national speaker at leadership events, retreats, and group meetings.

He is a recurring speaker at FamilyLife's nationwide Weekend to Remember® marriage conferences to audiences of 500 to 1,800.

He has served on several executive panels including Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce Leadership Panel, Kettering Executive Summit, and MFHA's Diverse Executives Panel.

Education Accreditation Personal

Tony is a Corporate Directors Governance Fellow, a graduate of Wharton's Executive Education Program, has practiced as a CPA, earned NASD Series 27, 24, 7 & 63 licenses, and holds a BBA in Accounting, with honors. Tony and his wife, married for over 35 years, reside in Atlanta, Georgia and have two adult children.